PROFILE

Bringing a folk-ful touch from Nanaimo, BC, Canada, Ryan Palm is a multi-talented musician, artist, and producer whose compositions sustain authenticity, emotional depth, and brilliance. Opening doors of discovery and connection with a unique blend of Folk, Pop and Rock, his expressive vocals and introspective lyrics weave together to reveal a captivating narrative of exploration and self-discovery.

Through his intimate solo performances and his collaborative projects, Ryan hopes to bring light to our communal challenges, to welcome change and understanding. From the stage to the studio, his commitment to the craft is evident in every note he plays and every lyric he pens.
